

2010 RURAL LISTENING TOUR

Every year, Congressman Barrow hosts a Rural Listening Tour, so he can meet with folks in rural communities and hear their concerns. This year's Rural Listening Tour, which will run from January 5 - 8, 2010, includes town hall meetings in 10 counties, with tours of local farms and other facilities along the way.

Folks are encouraged to come out and meet with Congressman Barrow in January. Congressman Barrow schedules this tour so he can hear first-hand from constituents about the issues facing rural communities in Georgia's 12th District. All meetings are free and open to the public.
